Iwo Jima Anniversary Celebration Brings Together Generations of Service

New York, New York, January 6, 2010 - The Iwo Jima Survivors Association of New York is pleased to announce their 65th Anniversary Celebration at a dinner given on Saturday, February 20, at the Chateau Briand in Carle Place, NY. Medal of Honor Recipient Col. H.C. Barney Barnum, USMC (Ret) and Lt General Frank Libuitti, USMC (Ret), will be guest speakers at the event that will honor the legacy of the WWII survivors alongside service members from current conflicts.

The evening begins with cocktails at 7:00 pm followed by dinner and dancing. The Golden Tones will provide entertainment from the Big Band Era. Tickets are $150.00 with proceeds benefitting Hope For The Warriors™, a national non-profit organization that assists wounded service members, their families and families of the fallen.

Sponsorship opportunities and journal ads for the dinner are also available. Please contact Emma Riley, Hope For The Warriors™ Northeast Regional Director, at 212- 471-9479 or emma@hopeforthewarriors.org for tickets, sponsorship and/or journal ads.

“We hope you can join us for an evening of celebration and remembrance as we commemorate one of the historical moments in our nation’s past and offer gratitude for the service and sacrifice these brave Americans so freely gave,” states Tina Atherall, Executive Vice President of Hope For The Warriors™. “We owe our freedom to these brave service members who share a common bond, one that stretches from the top of Mt. Suribachi to the hot, sandy deserts of Iraq and Afghanistan.”
