Operation Hope For The Holidays

Providing toys, food for families of wounded

Washington, DC - December 10th, 2009 – Hope For The Warriors™ recently launched “Operation Hope For The Holidays” to reach out to wounded service members and their families nationwide who are in need this holiday season. Donations for toys and/or food items for Christmas dinner for families of wounded service members are currently being accepted.

“We want to give back to those who have given so much,” states Leslie Hunt, Project Coordinator of Operation Hope For The Holidays. “If you are looking for something meaningful to do this holiday, we encourage you to donate to a wounded warrior and their family this holiday. Give them the gift of hope.”

If you are interested in adopting a family, or making a monetary donation for toys or food, please contact Leslie Hunt at (910) 554-7120.
