

100% RAW Powerlifting Federation Holds Challenge on 9/11 To Assist Wounded Service Members

JACKSONVILLE, NC, July 17, 2009 – The First Annual “9/11” Military Bench Press Championship and Press Challenge sponsored by 100% RAW Powerlifting Federation will be held at Gold’s Gym in Jacksonville, NC, on Friday, September 11th, 2009. A portion of the proceeds from the event will benefit Hope For The Warriors™, a national non-profit organization that assists U.S. service members and their families nationwide who have been adversely affected by injuries or death in the line of duty.

“100% RAW Powerlifting Federation is excited to host this event here in Jacksonville, home of Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune,” states Kevin Dickhut, Meet Director. “We invite everyone to come out on the 8th Anniversary of 9/11 and show their support for our wounded service members who have sacrificed for this country.” Kevin Dickhut is also an active duty US Marine, and 100% RAW Powerlifting Federation World Record Holder.

Doors will open on Friday at noon with the lifting competition beginning at 5:00p.m. All levels are welcome to participate but 100% RAW Powerlifting Federation membership is required. Entry Fee deadline is September 1, 2009. For more information on entry fee requirements, Federation Membership, and event details, please visit the 100% RAW Powerlifting website at www.rawpowerlifting.com.

100% RAW Powerlifting Federation was established in 1999 with the goal to highlight power lifters competing 100% drug free and “unequipped,” meaning no special suits, shirts or wraps.

Hope For The Warriors™ was founded in 2006 by Shannon Maxwell and Robin Kelleher with a mission that the sacrifices of the wounded across military service branches and throughout the nation would not be forgotten nor their needs unmet. Their home office is aboard Camp Lejeune, NC, with satellite offices in New York, Virginia and Tampa.
